

The ICS Private Investigator Course provides training in the following topics:

Investigation as a Career
 Principles of Law in Investigations
 Basic Steps to Investigation
 Basic Communication for Investigation
 Sources of Information
 Reporting Techniques

Courtesy of Printtrak

The Computer and the Investigator
 Background Investigations
 Observation
 Surveillance
 Equipment Usage
 Evidence
 Court Appearances and Legal Principles
 Undercover Investigations
 Corporate Intelligence Gathering
 Interview and Interrogation Techniques
 Fingerprinting Techniques
 Handwriting Analysis
 Firearm Usage and Safety

Executive Protection
 Retail Security/Loss Prevention
 Becoming a Professional
 Work Experience Option

These units were written and reviewed by investigation professionals such as Leroy Cook, George Weaver, Jim Kanavy, Maura Casey, Rick Misch, Dee Moody, George Van Nostrand, Leonard Butt, James Simms, Brian Buggé, Bob Haack, James Crews, Louis Portis, Pamela King, Jude Fitzgerald, David Sexton, and William Yeomans, to name a few.

Courtesy of Louis Portis, Ph.D.

If you want a course that teaches and reinforces the basic as well as the advanced techniques necessary to an investigator, then this is the course for you!

Courtesy of District Security & Investigations

Courtesy of James Simms and Leonard Butt